Induction of new member

President Dick Austin led the pledge and Rev. Jim Adams gave the invocation.

Visiting Rotarians

- Kari Buch, Canandaigua

Guests

- Barb Krauss St. Peter's Choir (31 members, including several Interactors)
- Linda Beckley
- Ed Schultz
- Eva Steadman
- Joanne Bleakley
- Ben Kabat
- Tony Littrell
- Kristen Koczent
- Interactors Stephen Fazio, Bryna Gage and Joe Arruda

50/50

- Dave Cook split $133/66 with the Red Kettle Drive. Dave then generously donated his winnings to the "Sweet Dreams" project.

Announcements

- President Dick Austin reminded us that the Club will be working the Community Lunch Program on Thursday, December 22.
- Ted Baker announced that the radio station will be broadcasting St. Peter's Christmas Eve service live at 10:45 p.m.
- Reminder: Interact will be having their bake sale next week Dec. 21. Bring your checkbooks!
- Charlie Bauder still needs few bell ringers for Christmas Eve.

- Kelly Bradley was happy to announce that due to the generous donations received, the “Sweet Dreams” project is only $100 away from its goal. (Note: Dave Cook donated his 50/50 winnings – so now they are only $34 short of their goal! Thanks, Dave!)
- Tara Rago announced that Lyons Bank will be hosting “After Hours” this evening.

Fines and Happy Dollars

- Dick Austin fined anyone who had a cold and encouraged them to take care of themselves.
- In lieu of the usual happy dollars, members were asked to put their “dollars” in the Red Kettle.
- Correction to last week’s Wrap-up: John Oughterson was happy to meet Rotary International President John Germ at the Eastern Cities Dinner. He also has applications for two potential members. (Sorry, I skipped you, Johnny!)

Program

Once again, St. Peter’s Senior Choir, led by Wendy Trowbridge, entertained us with their beautiful Christmas Program. They did not disappoint! There were several outstanding solos and it was noted that several of our own Interactors are members of the Choir. Thank you for getting us into the Holiday Spirit and we look forward to having you back next year!
